Office—Temple, Main and New High

THE Fifth ward is entitled to the blue ribbon. She covered herself with glory last night.

SPECIAL Envoy Sedgwick has begun to investigate. He has compressed his head to working size.

VOTE for unpledged delegates. Send honest, untied men to the convention, and trust them to do right.

ILLEGAL voting at a primary election is a punishable offense. Let the law-defying gang look out for the officers of the law!

How crying is the necessity for honest citizens to be at the primaries to-day, was shown by the illegal voters in last night's caucus.

AFTER last night's steal, it will be a very spiritless Third ward citizen who will not vote the unpledged ticket as against the slate of the burglarious bosses.

THE bosses began illegal voting at the caucuses last night. They will try it at the primaries to-day, but precautions will be taken in every ward to arrest illegal voters.

COL. GILDER and companion have at last started for the North Pole. It would be quite equivalent for them to come out to the coast and discover Washington Bartlett, of San Francisco.

THE honest voters of the Third Ward will to-day have a chance to express their opinion of the manner in which their caucus was burglarized by bosses and tramps last night. Vote for unpledged delegates!

Boss Junior—namely, Mr. Sutherland Hutton—was knocked out in his own ward last night. The Fifth is made up of too good citizens for corruptionists to thrive there forever. Let the citizens clinch it at the polls to-day.

"WE'RE going to hold this county down politically, the same as Chris. Buckley holds San Francisco down," said an aspiring but blundering Los Angeles boss, recently. So, smarty? The people may have something to say about that, and throw you down even harder than they did last night in the manly Fifth.

THE caucuses last night were somewhat mixed in their result, but were, upon the whole, encouraging, as showing that the people are getting waked up to the fact that they have been pulled under by the bosses. In the Third Ward the bosses, by the aid of fifty tramps, captured everything; but they will be overthrown at the polls to-day if the voters do their duty. In the Fifth ward the bosses were completely thrown down. In the other wards it appears to have been nip and tuck, with the bosses rather nipped. The decisive work remains to be done at the polls to-day. Every good citizen's presence is absolutely needed

A QUINTETTE of "smart polititions" was recently assembled in secret conclave in this city, when the proposition was made by one of them—a sort of connecting link," so to speak—to do something terrible to the hated (and feared) TIMES. His bloodthirsty and ruin-filled suggestion was to withdraw the party advertising from its columns! Then upspoke a by-stander, with a grain of sabe still remaining in his cabeza: "Gentlemen, you may say what you please about the TIMES, but there is one thing you should bear in mind: it is read by a great many Republicans—and wouldn't it be rather preposterous for this little quintette to attempt to sit down upon that paper?" Yea, verily!

WE call the attention of all independent Republicans to the fact that the test established for voters at to-day's primaries is alternative. It reads: (1) "Did you vote for Blaine and Logan, or would you have so voted had you had the opportunity, at the election in 1884," or, (2) "Will you support the nominees of the Republican Conventions at the coming election?" The first branch of the inquiry having been put to the voter and answered satisfactorily, the inquisitor has no right to put the second branch and demand an answer to it. So that those Republicans who refuse to swallow an odious nomination—and there are lots of them—cannot be ruled out by the bosses on a challenge based on the test last named above. Let voters bear this in mind, and not suffer themselves to be bulldozed.

THE TIMES has no grudge against Gen. Nelson A. Miles. He is a brilliant soldier and a good man, who has successfully wound up the raid of Geronimo. It does protest, however, against the present ignoring of Gen. George Crook, who wore out the renegades, robbed them of three-fourths of their strength, and paved the way to a quick conclusion of the war. When Gen. Miles took command, he passed two days in earnest consultation with Gen. Crook, who freely gave him all the information he desired. Gen. Miles stated emphatically to the writer at the opening of the campaign that he intended to make no change of policy. Nor did he do so. He added the heliograph service, which has been of no use in the campaign, and flattered the howling Arizonians by taking them into his confidence, which Crook never condescended to do. Otherwise he has precisely carried out Crook's policy.

St. Charles Hotel.

This hotel should have the patronage of the temperance public. It is a well-kept house in the best sense of the word. And Mr. Stroebridge, the genial landlord, is a Christian gentleman and a devout, practical temperance man. It has cost him $700 to keep a door closed between his house and an offensive saloon neighbor.—[Pacific Opinion.

The Extra Session on Its Last Legs.

ANOTHER FAILURE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Further Accounts of the Washouts in New Mexico—The Nevada Democracy—Other Coast News.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10.—A joint Republican caucus was held at noon, which was attended by fifty-six members of both houses. Senator McClure presided.

A long debate took place over the project to adjourn sine die to-morrow at noon, and a resolution to this effect was adopted by a vote of 45 to 6.

It is believed that a motion to adjourn sine die to-morrow at noon will be adopted in the Assembly to-morrow morning.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

Senate.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock, President Daggett in the Chair.

Mr. Filcher introduced a concurrent resolution to adjourn sine die at 5 o'clock to-day.

Mr. Kellogg amended to make the hour 4 o'clock, Saturday.

Mr. Cross said that the Assembly, having frequently laid similar resolutions on the table, it was evident that the adoption of this would be futile. He understood that a Republican caucus was going to be held this noon, and, until that took action, he thought it would be useless to send any more resolutions to the Assembly.

After considerable debate, a recess was taken until 2 o'clock, thus postponing action on the resolution.

Mr. Lynch, from the Committee on Mileage, reported in favor of allowing mileage to members, the statutory attaches, the Sergeant-at-Arms, Secretary and Minute Clerk, and per diem to the Postmistress.

On motion of Mr. Spencer, the subject was made the special order for to-morrow morning.

The Senate then adjourned until 10:30 to-morrow morning.

Assembly.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10.—The Assembly convened at 10 a. m., Mr. Weaver presiding.

Mr. Walrath introduced a concurrent resolution to adjourn sine die to-morrow at 12 p. m.

Mr. Long moved as a substitute that the Legislature adjourn sine die to-day at 3 p. m.

Mr. Munday moved to lay the subject on the table.

Carried by a vote of 30 to 27.

The Committee on Attaches offered a report recommending that officers, attaches and clerks should be allowed regular pay for the seventeen days' recess, without mileage.

Mr. Yale moved to refer the report back to the committee, with instructions to submit a report of what was honestly due these clerks, officers and attaches.

The motion was carried, the word "honestly" being stricken out.

Mr. Britt introduced a resolution to adjourn sine die to-day, at 12:30.

Mr. Munday moved to lay on the table.

Carried by a vote of 33 to 24.

Mr. Goucher offered a resolution to adjourn sine die to-day at 3 p. m.

Mr. Walrath moved as a substitute to make the hour of adjournment 12:30 p. m. to-morrow.

Mr. Gregory proposed to lay on the table all motions to adjourn sine die until the Senate took up the bill to repeal section 1422,

The motion and substitute were laid upon the table by a vote of 33 to 26.

Mr. Walrath moved to adjourn until to-morrow at 10.

Carried by a vote of 30 to 26.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Interesting Habeas Corpus Case—Another Heavy Failure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—In February last, Frank Jaynes, General Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was subpœnaed to produce before Judge Maguire, of the Superior Court, certain telegrams which had passed between San Francisco and New York city, sent by either of the various persons named in the subpœna to any one of various other persons, on each and every day for several successive days, covering a period of six months. The Superintendent refused to search for, or produce, the telegrams, and was committed for contempt. By writs of habeas corpus and of certiorari, the proceedings of the Superior Court have been reviewed and reversed by the Supreme Court, and Superintendent Jaynes discharged from custody.

TRANSCONTINENTAL BICYCLISTS.

S. J. Spicy, champion long-distance bicyclist of the world, who started from New York City on June 1 on a bicycle, en route for this city, has arrived here, having covered the distance in 100½ days, four and one-half days less than the best record. Fred Van Meebeeke has also arrived here from New Orleans, having made the distance in twelve days.

ANOTHER HEAVY FAILURE.

Hoffman & Co., fancy dry goods importers, No. 19 Battery street, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors to-day. Liabilities about half a million dollars.

The assets cannot be ascertained. The assignees are M. Meyer, George H. Frederick, Arnold Stahl and G. Gump, all of this city. The principal creditors are Daniel Meyer, of London, and the California Bank; I. Cohen of this city, and others in New York, Cincinnati and Syracuse whose names could not be learned. The firm attribute the failure to general business depression. The immediate cause of their assignment was their inability to pay a draft for $10,000 presented by I. Cohen. The latter threatened to attach, and to protect the remainder of the creditors the firm made an assignment.

LATER.—The assets are stated to be nominally the same as the liabilities, and consist of stock and $100,000 in book accounts. Half of the liabilities is owing to Eastern firms. Daniel Meyer is a creditor to the amount of $60,000; I. Cohen and Bachman, $10,000 each; the London and California Bank, $30,000; the latter also holding notes amounting to $9000 indorsed by D. Blum, a former member of the firm. It is reported that the stock will be disposed of at private sale, and that business will not be resumed by the firm.

KEANE BROS. WILL RESUME.

The creditors of Keane Bros., dry goods merchants, who failed August 28, to-day decided to accept fifty-two cents on the dollar as a settlement in full of all claims. The firm will resume business.

COAST FIRES.

An Old Man Burned to Death at Bristol, Nev.

VIRGINIA, Nev., Sept. 10.—The Enterprise's special from Pioche says: Wednesday night, at the town of Bristol, twenty miles northwest of Pioche, the north side of Main street was burned from the brewery to the postoffice, both inclnded. The flames were first seen issuing from the rear portion of Barton's store. J. N. Gregory, an employe, was known to be inside. Desperate efforts were made to release him. After breaking in the front door, the citizens found Gregory behind the counter in such a position as to make it impossible to extricate him. He could not be drawn out, and was dazed and unable to help himself, replying to their expostulations with unintelligible ejaculations. The men were forced to retreat, amid the firing of overheated cartridges, as the flames were upon them. Gregory was burned to death. He was 72 years of age, and had been drinking. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss on goods is supposed to be light. The goods were mostly stored in fire-proof cellars. Nine buildings were burned. The loss is nominal on account of shrunken values.

POLITICAL.

The Nevada Democracy Puts Up a Ticket.

ELKO, Nev., Sept. 10.—The convention met at 9 o'clock. A motion to amend the report on order of business so as to bring the judicial nominations before that of Governor was lost—78 to 47.

Jewett M. Adams received the nomination for Governor by acclamation.

T. T. Bill of Nye was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor by acclamation.

J. H. McMillan of Humboldt was nominated for Congress. Cassidy declined.

John T. Brady was nominated for Secretary of State; C. H. Belknap, of Ormsby, for Judge of the Supreme Court; John McKeernan, of White Pine, for Clerk of the Supreme Court; J. F. Boller, of Esmeralds, for Attorney General; R. Sadler, of Eureka, for State Controller; Jerry Schooling, of Washoe, for State Treasurer; S. H. Day, of Ormsby, for Surveyor General; A. E. Kay, of Eureka, for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The platform, as adopted, contains strong planks on the labor and Chinese questions, indorses Cleveland's administration excepting as to the silver question, favors the opening of the Carson Mint, and indorses Senator Fair's course in the Senate of the United States.

IDAHO REPUBLICANS.

BELLEVUE, Idaho Ter., Sept. 10.—The Republican Territorial Convention unanimously nominated Fred. Du Bois, ex-Territorial Marshal, as Delegate to Congress. A strong anti-Mormon platform was adopted.

THE WASHOUTS.

Great Damage to the Railways Near Albuquerque.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The Chronicle's Albuquerque, N. M., special says: The Santa Fé Railroad, both north and south of here, is experiencing considerable trouble with washouts. The first train from the north for several days got in this morning, but it was a bobtail train, made up at Las Vegas, the mails from the East having been transferred over the washouts a few miles above that place. It is said that the washouts north cannot be repaired for several days, as they extend over several miles. No through trains from the south have arrived since Monday night, being prevented by the biggest washouts yet experienced by the road. Trains over the Atlantic and Pacific are delayed two or three days now, from the same cause.

Will Not Raise the Rolls

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10.—The State Board of Equalization having just returned from their investigations of the condition of property values in the interior, a meeting was held yesterday, at which a partial result was reached, the action of the board, although not final, indicating that no assessment rolls will be raised this year.

BURIED TREASURE.

Searching for Gold Seized by Soldiers During the War.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The Times's New Orleans special says: Dr. George J. Adams, of Massachusetts, was arrested here to-day, charged with embezzlement by a number of persons whom he defrauded out of money to search for hidden treasure. Adams claims to have been a practicing physician in Massachusetts. When the war broke out he shouldered his musket and joined Company A, Seventeenth Massachusetts Volunteers, a portion of the command which came with Butler to New Orleans. On a foraging expedition three soldiers of the regiment entered a dwelling on Magnolia plantation, twenty miles above New Orleans, on the right bank of the river, and carried off some $30,000, $1000 in silver and the rest in gold. Being afraid to enter the city with so much money, on reaching a pecan grove about half a mile from the locks at the canal, opposite Greenville, or rather the upper end of the Exposition grounds, they selected a tree prominent for its size and some peculiarities in appearance which made it conspicuous. At the foot of this tree they buried the money, and then took the bearings, one of the party being a civil engineer. Each of the three men were furnished with a copy of this, and the marauders returned to New Orleans, intending to return after the war and recover the money. His two companions were killed, and Adams was desperately wounded. Soon after Adams was taken to the hospital, and left it paralyzed and perfectly helpless. When he recovered the use of his limbs, only a month ago, he returned to New Orleans, and at once began to search for his treasure. He found, to his dismay, that all the older pecan trees had been cut down and only young ones left, and he was consequently unable to recognize the tree under which the treasure was buried. He devoted himself, however, for three weeks to delving for it. A few days ago he took several other parties into partnership with him who advanced a better outfit for surveying the land and digging for the buried money, but as he has succeeded in unearthing no treasures, his partners had him arrested to-day.

THE CUTTING MUDDLE.

Secretary Bayard and Envoy Sedgwick at Work on it.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—A Washington special says: The Secretary of State, notwithstanding the release of Cutting, will, it is said, insist upon the abrogation of Article 186 of the Mexican Penal Code, which confers upon Mexican courts jurisdiction under certain circumstances over foreigners for offenses committed outside of Mexican territory; or at least Bayard will insist upon a renunciation by Mexico of the right to subject American citizens to that code, on the ground that American courts have exclusive jurisdiction over offenses committed within the territory of the United States by American citizens.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 10.—Special Envoy Sedgwick arrived at Paso del Norte this morning, and after breakfasting with Consul Brigham, began his investigation of the local record in the Cutting case.

GERONIMO'S GANG.

Their Fate Trembling in the Balance.

THEIR PRISON TO BE AT SAN ANTONIO.

Miles Said to Have Disobeyed Orders in Shipping Them Off—A Military Commission Suggested

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Gen. Drum, Acting Secretary of War, has given instructions that Geronimo, Natchez and the other hostiles surrendered with him, be stopped at San Antonio and kept imprisoned there until a determination is reached as to what course of procedure can be undertaken against him. It is officially known that the surrender was not made without conditions, but what the conditions were beyond an agreement that they should not be surrendered for trial in Arizona, has not yet been reported. It was in compliance with this condition that Geronimo started with the hostiles for Florida.

MILES SAID TO HAVE DISOBEYED ORDERS.

THE PRESIDIO OF SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Official dispatches received from Arizona say that there is an erroneous impression regarding the Indian prisoners of war. They surrendered with the understanding that they would not be sent out of the country. Three men and three women crawled out of Capt. Lawton's camp, in the dark, and have not yet been recaptured. Orders were sent to Gen. Miles September 8th to hold Geronimo and the other Indian prisoners at Fort Bowie under guard, which orders he seems to have disobeyed. The War Department has disapproved of the action of Gen. Miles and directed Gen. Stanley to take charge of Geronimo, Natchez and the other hostile Indians on their arrival at San Antonio, Tex, and to hold them as prisoners at San Antonio barracks.

A MILITARY COMMISSION SUGGESTED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A determination of the course of procedure against the captured hostiles will probably be made by the President, but not until the terms of the surrender and all attendant circumstances shall be officially known. With the present knowledge, it seems probable that the offenders can neither be tried by court-martial nor by civil authority, but they may be tried as the Modocs were, by a military commission. This is a tribunal for which there are many well-recognized precedents in our own history, though it is one which has as yet no recognition in the statute law. The atrocities of these prisoners, terrible as they were, are not thought to be such as would bring them within the jurisdiction of a court-martial, which is very limited; nor would the civil court, in the absence of witnesses, meet the requirements of the case, although their guilt is notorious. Under the circumstances, a military commission, which seems to be an intermediate between a court-martial and the tribunal of Judge Lynch, and which is recognized by leading publicists as a necessity under certain circumstances, is perhaps the only court by which justice could be meted out to these murderers. It would, of course, be composed of military officers, and the proceedings would be similar in character to those of a court-martial. Little doubt is entertained by those who know the character of the Apaches that there will be found among them a number who will readily betray Geronimo and other leaders to save their own necks.

A PRECEDENT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The Army and Navy Register to-morrow will say:

"If public opinion in and out of the army has weight in deciding the fate of Geronimo and his murderous band, they will be tried by a military commission, speedily convicted, and executed without delay. There is a precedent for such treatment of them, if one is needed, in the case of the trial by military commission of the Sioux after the Minnesota massacre, in 1862. Five hundred of the prisoners were then put on trial, three hundred of whom were found guilty of murder and thirty-eight were hanged. Every one of the band was a prisoner of war at the time of their escape from the San Carlos reservation; they had been placed there by Gen. Crook and were given the liberty of the reservation, on condition of not leaving it. They broke this promise, and used their privileges to escape in order again to take the warpath. They are paroled prisoners taken red handed in acts of war, and should suffer the punishment adjudged by the law of war to such acts of treachery."

A POWERFUL POOL.

Another Gigantic Railway Combination Formed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The western railway managers, after a three-day's session, succeeded to-day in reaching a basis of compromise and reorganizing the Western Freight Association. Two prominent obstacles have been the refusal of the Chicago and Northwestern to pool its range cattle business originating in Western Nebraska and Wyoming, and the demand of the Missouri Pacific that by reason of its Lincoln (Neb.) extension it should be awarded a share of through business. The first was settled by virtually conceding to the Northwestern its point. This was done by removing the western boundary line of the range cattle pool as it formerly existed, running north and south through Valentine Brady Island and Indianola, Neb., to Laramie City and Douglass. This gives the Northwestern control of all the cattle shipped on its line west of Norfolk to Fort Fetterman, from which it will exact local rates and not report business to any pool. As both the Union Pacific and Burlington are building into that territory, it will not enjoy the monopoly longer than the present season. The other bone of contention was amicably divided by giving the Missouri Pacific four per cent. in the pool on through business and awarding the Omaha two per cent. The Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs is awarded six per cent. of the gross earnings on the Council Bluffs local pool. Otherwise, the percentages remain unchanged. A committee of one from each road was appointed to perfect the minor details of the pool, to report to the general meeting at 11 a. m. to-morrow, to which time adjournment was taken, a pool which will endure five years and will go into effect September 5th, with Gen. Fatthern as Commissioner. This completes one of the most important and far-reaching railroad combinations ever made in the West.

Bound for the North Pole.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 10.—Col. Gilder and his companion, Griffith, started for the North Pole, last night. They will take the steamer Princess at Selkirk, and proceed to the Norway House, and from that point they will ascend Nelson river and proceed to York Factory. The outfit which the Colonel takes with him weighs a ton and a half, and consists of hardtack, pemmican and other foods, guns, rifles, revolvers and ammunition, scientific instruments, a hand-organ, baubles for the natives, etc. He also takes two sledges, sixteen feet long and four feet wide. After leaving York Factory, Col. Gilder will take as little as possible with him, because of the difficulty of carrying it along. He relies for sustenance mostly on game secured along his route.

A New Postmaster.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Daniel Rice has been appointed fourth-class postmaster at Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo county, Cal.

REAL ART,

And a few Minutes' Chat with a Real Artist.

When a reporter of the TIMES dropped in at the studio of Albert Jenks, the other day, he found the artist seated in his inner room before an easel, giving the finishing strokes to a portrait. It was that of a Santa Barbara gentleman—and, if the brush did not flatter him o'ermuch, a very handsome gentleman—one that fair-haired women might rave over. There was, perhaps, the shade of a supercilious tilt to the chin and a self-conscious twirl to the mustachios which would prejudice gentlemen against him, and, ten to one, they would relegate him to the masculine tophet by calling him a "pretty man." Be that as it may, the picture stood out upon the canvas like the face of a man with blood pulsing in the veins.

"I'm in a hurry to finish it," said the artist, as he made little dabs here and there with his brush, emphasizing the locks of hair. "It has to go up on the steamer this afternoon. If you'll excuse me, I'll talk and work, too."

The artist sat upright in his chair, a full arm's length from the canvas, and the hand which manipulated the brush was thrust forward in a horizontal position, entirely independent of the usual "rest" or mahlstick. In response to an observation on this unusual method, Mr. Jenks said: "I accustomed myself to work without the mahlstick when I was a beginner, and I have never used it since. It seems to me that the man who works with a rest under his hand, confining himself to the finger motion, must dwarf and cramp his work."

Mr. Jenk's portraits are certainly a triumphant testimonial to his free-hand theory. They are bold in conception, but the technique is not the less perfect therefor. The unsupported hand which the artist extends in his work is more steady than though it rested upon a hickory stick. It is the steadiness, the conscious power of self-reliance.

That Mr. Jenks is endowed with true genius there can be no question. The walls of his studio are lined with the portraits of well-known ladies and gentlemen of this city, and so true are they to life that one who stands there and looks about may readily imagine himself in the midst of a social gathering. Among the pictures are those of Mrs. O. W. Childs, Mrs. R. S. Baker, Mrs. R. Nadeau, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Judson, Mrs. Gallup (daughter of Dr. Sinsabaugh), Major Bonebrake, William Lacy, Colonel and Mrs. G. W. Wells, W. D. Stephenson, Judge Clancy, P. M. Green, Dr. Cochran, H. W. Hellman, Judge Bicknell, Dr. Griffin, Rev. Dr. Hugh, Mrs. George French and daughter Blanch, of Santa Barbara, Senator George Hearst, E. Germain and Mrs. D G. Stephens. It is impossible, of course, to attempt a newspaper article a detailed criticism of all these pictures. But Mr. Jenks's popularity is an unmistakable attestation of his merits. He has painted since his arrival in the city 122 portraits, the proceeds of which amount to about $11,000. It is probable that, from his season's work he will take in not less than $20,000.

No wonder Mr. Jenks says he is devoted to his art and don't care for much else. Such accomplishments might well engross any man's ambition.

PALTRY PALLIASOTTI.

Who Claims He Was Robbed, When He Wasn't.

Giuseppe Palliasotti, on the 8th instant, made the acquaintance of Lillie Lee, a lady of Spanish extraction, and, by his Italian blandishments, induced her to accompany him to his room, at the Hotel Italia, on Aliso street. The next day Palliasotti's love-dream was rudely dispelled when he found himself by himself in his boudoir, and his wallet containing $110 in gold gone "with the flowers that bloom in the Spring. His "Corpo di Bacchos" and "Sacr-r-r-ramentos" were terrific. His lamentations took away from him the power to prosecute his search, and his vengeful bosom, hitherto mellowed with sweet love for deceitful Lilly Lee, burned with thoughts of revenge. He finally lied him to Justice Austin, where his tale of woe was extracted from him in strips, like macaroni. Search was made for Lilly, and she was discovered, but she indignantly denied having pocketed paltry Palliasottis' plethoric purse In the meantime, the excitable man from the sunny clime had returned home, and, having attended to his revenge business, commenced a new search for the wallet and its contents. Without at all over-exerting himself, he found it exactly where he had left it when he retired—at the head of the bed, under his pillow. Miss Lillie Lee appeared before Justice Austin yesterday afternoon, to answer the charge, but Palliasotti did not think it worth while to present himself to explain and apologize. The case was continued until Monday, when the proceedings will be dismissed, and Mr. Palliasotti mulcted in the costs.

A. C. Greenebaum, the representative of the Chicago Brewing Company of San Francisco, is in town, on business and pleasure combined.

Capt. J. C. Macabe, recently elected to the Tennessee Legislature, has decided to cast his lot here. He was yesterday admitted to the Los Angeles bar, upon very complimentary motions by Judge Stephens and Judge Anderson.

Judge U. M. Rose, of Little Rock, Arkansas, one of the brainiest men of his State, is in the city for a few days. Judge Rose declined the offer of the United States Senatorship to succeed Garland, preferring to stick to his practice of $40,000 to $50,000 a year.

A similar decision in a like case was rendered in the claim of Minano vs. the Southern Pacific and the Southern Pacific vs. The State of California. NOTICE.

CHARLES F. LUMMIS, for the past nineteen months a member of the local staff of this paper, has this day become one of its owners, and is now the duly-appointed City Editor thereof.

THE TIMES MIRROR COMPANY.

Good Citizens to the Rescue!

To-day are to be held throughout Los Angeles city and county the Republican primaries for the election of delegates to the coming Republican County Convention.

Not alone for the sake of mere party considerations, but also for the sake of helping to achieve honest government, the TIMES urges upon every good citizen of true Republican proclivities the pressing necessity of attending these primary elections and of voting for clean, sound, intelligent, firm and alert representative men as delegates, and thereby helping to defeat the determined attempt which we know is making to capture the convention in the interest of the corrupt and scheming local bosses of Los Angeles city.

The importance of the coming election; the imperative necessity of selecting trustworthy men to administer our local affairs; the growing evil of bossism in politics; the infamous deeds done at some of the caucuses in this city last night; the known and desperate purpose of bad men—who make of politics a trade, of office a traffic, and of honor merchandise—to seize upon the important trusts of the county for what they and their instruments can make out of them, directly or indirectly; the weighty interests depending upon the Senatorial and Assembly nominations to be made; the supreme need, in short, of good government, both local and State—all these considerations make it incumbent upon honest citizens, whose highest aim should be to help each other achieve pure government for all, to turn out and enter the fight at the true beginning-point, to-wit, THE PRIMARIES.

Therefore let every Republican voter in the county make it his business to go to the primary polls in his ward or precinct to-day and cast his vote for capable and trustworthy citizens for delegates—men pledged to vote in the coming county convention only for fit persons for office, and to vote against unfit ones, of which latter class more than one will present himself before that body.

Citizens! fail not in your duty at the primaries!

The City Hall Lot.

As will be seen by our local columns, the Building Committee of the City Council have decided to report recommending the rejection of all bids received from contractors for the construction of the new City Hall, the sale of the present unoccupied City Hall lot on Spring and Second streets, and the acceptance of proposals for the sale to the city of another site. The grounds upon which this action was taken are, in brief, that the lot is a white elephant on the city's hands, as the case now stands, with a building fund of only $65,000 available for the construction of the new city building. The lot in question is 120 by 103 feet, and it is estimated that by its sale the city would realize not less than $120,000. With this sum another suitable lot could be bought, and leave a handsome margin to be put into the new building. A lot on the east side of Fort street, south of the Jewish Synagogue, known as the Titus property, 180 feet on Fort by 165 feet deep, has been offered to the city for $65,000. The lot is more than double the size of the present city lot, and at current prices for real estate in that locality, the price does not appear to be out of the way. Should the city's lot on the corner of Spring and Second streets be sold for $65,000, and the Fort street lot be bought for $65,000, there would be a balance of $55,000 left, to go into the building fund, swelling it to $120,000, which would be a very fair "pot" to start on in that needed enterprise.

While the Fort-street lot is not so valuable, or so desirable, in some respects, as the present site for the proposed new City Hall, it is nevertheless fairly well adapted to the purpose. Its greater size is a material advantage, and the rapid growth of the business section in that direction will soon make it sufficiently central for all practical and official purposes.

The site is worth considering along with others that may be offered.

Suffering Charleston.

An awful calamity has visited a city of the South. Charleston, South Carolina, has been shattered by a great earthquake. Thousands of her citizens—men, women and helpless children—are homeless and suffering. It was an unexampled disaster that befell them, and the case calls for extraordinary and immediate measures of relief. The humane, the just and the charitable throughout the land are appealed to for aid. We believe the response will be prompt, and it should be liberal. We are sure that Los Angeles will not lag behind, now that the case has been fairly presented to her people, as it has been in the appalling dispatches from the stricken city published in the TIMES from day to day.

We have received the following letters:

AID FOR CHARLESTON.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Your telegraphic columns from day to day tell us of colossal damage and intense suffering at Charleston, S. C. The earthquake is no more, if the slight rumblings that always follow are excepted. We shall expect no further casualties under that head. But what of the distressed ones by the tens of thousands, without shelter and without food, whose piteous appeals to the people of the remainder of the United States are enough to strike the hardest heart?

Clearly the great hand of their countrymen should go out to them. It is going out to them, from Maine to the Pacific, laden with solid and unmistakable evidences of true brotherhood. Only a few short years ago the people of the South vied with each other in sending forth to the charred and blackened cities of Chicago and Boston abundant offerings and they took no especial credit therefor—it was the prompting of the biggest and the best element of their manhood, and to say that they should be awarded extraordinary credit would be most unjust.

They had done but their duty.

Now, why should not a proper effort be made to give the citizens of Los Angeles opportunity to send relief to those people?

I am sure many are anxious and willing to do so. I know of no more effectual manner than through the agency of the press, and respectfully submit the question to the TIMES, in the hope that some means will be presented by you to reach the desired end. Yours,

SOUTHERNER.

CHARLESTON.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: From this "City of the Angels" help should be sent to those rendered destitute and injured by the earthquake at Charleston. If from no other city in the whole of the United States, yet from this should sympathy open wide her hands and contribute generously to relieve our fellow-citizens in the Southeast, bearing in mind that "he gives twice who gives quickly." Blest as we are with a climate world-wide travel has convinced the writer is not to be equaled, unlikely to be assailed by any such cataclysm as that which has befallen the Southeast, surely we can afford some aid to those Nature has apparently so cruelly maltreated. Paraphrasing Tom Hood's poem, let it not be said of us:

"Alas for the rarity
Of Christian charity
Under the sun:
Oh! it was pitiful,
From a whole city full,
Help there came none."

Yours truly, G. W.

I inclose $50 to start a relief fund, and feel sure both TIMES and Herald will be willing to receive subscriptions and help the work along. G. W.

Los Angeles, Sept. 10, 1886.

The generous subscription of this sympathetic citizen is placed by the TIMES as the nucleus of a fund for the benefit of the Charleston sufferers. The list will be swelled by the addition of other subscriptions that may be sent to this office; the names of the donors, with the amounts of their donations set opposite, will be published from day to day, and the funds duly forwarded and accounted for.

IT is said that E. B. Millar has refused $40,000 for his lot, 45 feet front, on Spring street, being the site of the old Vienna Garden, now used as a market.

The Dorsey-Brown Matter.

DENIAL FROM MR. DOZIER.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: In the absence of Rev. P. W. Dorsey from the city, in attendance upon the Baptist Association at San Bernardino, I cannot refrain from briefly responding to the article in your issue of Friday, implicating that gentleman in the causes that have brought about the divorce suit now pending between Hamlet B. Brown and his estimable wife.

Leaving to others more deeply concerned a particular discussion of the subject, if such discussion should by them be thought advisable, I desire simply to deny most positively any and all of the statements in said article that attribute to Mr. Dorsey, either by direct statement or by implication, any approach to criminality or even to impropriety.

I also desire to deny most emphatically that the difficulty in church disposed of with closed doors, some weeks ago, had any reference to Mr. Brown, or to anything with which he was connected, but it had exclusive reference to a question of church relationship affecting O. T. and C. H. Barker and A. W. Palmer, but in no way affecting their standing as citizens nor their character as gentlemen. These gentlemen and their families are well known here, and may be interviewed in regard to the facts.

The pretended account of Mr. Dorsey's abode at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Brown is so gross a fabrication, and so thorough a perversion of the truth, as to excite a feeling of the deepest indignation in the minds of all who have any knowledge of the facts. It may be as well to state in this connection, as explanatory of the animus of this publication, to which I am replying—on the supposition that the information contained therein is furnished by Mr. Brown—that a letter of dismission from the church was denied to Mr. Brown on application at the last covenant meeting, on the ground that an investigation concerning his own standing with the church is now pending. Respectfully,

MELVILLE DOZIER.

QUALIFIED DENIAL FROM MR. DORSEY.

San Bernardino Sept 10th 1886.

Ed Times.

In this mornings Times you do me great injustice. Your article in reference to me is false in almost every particular. I deny in the most emphatic manner the charge of wh I am accused. You should be slow to publish and the public should be very slow to believe so grave a charge against a man wh for five years has filled a responsible public position with credit and whose reputation has been unblemished on the authority of H. B. Brown. For the present I can only assert my entire innocence and wait for time to vindicate my reputation and to refute the injustice & falsity & your artice.

It may be of interest to the public to know that the plaintiff was too cowardly to swear to that portion of the complaint wh refers to me. Please insert this as written & oblige

Yours &c.,

P. W. DORSEY.

For the Horny-handed Sons of Toil

To the Editor of the Times—SIR. How many of the old saws and other worn-out tools hang on to us like grim death and cast their malevolent shadows across the path of the honest farmer? One in particular it is a pleasure to disprove—"that it is always the early bird that catches the worm." On the contrary, the worm usually catches the early bird. To this distasteful conclusion I have been forced by a long and bitter experience. Many farmers keep bees. These little helpers I have been associated with ever on the farm. They eat with me persistently, as I always eat, if possible, in the open air. Millions of them go out for an early breakfast and never return. This is the way most of them perish: They get full of honey, or water, or pollen, and their wings being too much worn to fly, they attempt to walk home, and, of course, it is their last move. So with other animals and insects, most of which are worms of some description, at some time. This idea that early morning work is good is liable to be carried to extremes. In the summer it is judicious to work while it is cool, but there are only a few weeks in this climate when the heat in the middle of the day is at all bardensome. The rest of the year, all the work, that the average person can endure and enjoy good health, can be done between sunrise and sunset. It is the drones and moths in the human hive that start these fallacious axioms.

F. M. SHAW.

Would'nt It Provoke You?

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: I have a beautiful little home, a small one. My front yard is planted with choice flowers, carefully attended to by myself and wife, we patiently watching their growth day by day, especially our tuberoses, waiting for them to bloom for a love-offering to our little one sleeping in the cemetery, whose grave is always kept green and wreathed with flowers. Then to have them stolen—I cannot call it else—in broad daylight, by neighbors, cutting off the whole stock, and even in some instances pulling up the bulb from the ground—isn't it rather provoking?

I know that I am not the only sufferer in this way. The value of the flowers taken is small compared to the annoyance and disappointment to those who are watching their growth.

These petty thefts, I am sorry to say, are not confined to children. M.

CAN'T BUILD.

The Present City Hall Hole to Be Sold.

The Building Committee of the City Council held an important meeting at the committee rooms of the City Hall, yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of considering what should be done with the City Hall conundrum, which the City Fathers are just now unable to solve. In this case it won't do to say, "We give it up;" it must be solved. The Finance Committee was present by invitation, as were also the Mayor and the President of the Council.

The contractors' last bids were again surveyed, and it was found that the two lowest bids—rough carpenter work and iron work—called for $19,400, and the stone, terra-cotta and brick work for $58,265.

These amounts ($77,665) would give the mere shell of the building. It was the opinion of Mr. Stearns and others that it would cost $65,000 more to finish the interior of the City Hall, and Mr. Jones thought, from the experience he had gained in previous affairs, that it would take fully $100,000 to bring the building to completion.

Mr. Willard opined that it was absolutely impracticable to put up and complete the projected City Hall. He advocated selling out, and buying a better location. An inside lot, not at the corner of a street, would be preferable, and, with the appropriation a substantial and good hall could be built on such a location.

Mayor Spence also showed preference for an inside lot, as the present site was far too noisy. He gave a graphic description of the worry to which the Mayor's court officials are exposed through the din on the street, and believed that all other city officials whose misfortune it was to have their offices in the present building suffered the same tortures.

Mr. Graves, of Graves & O'Melveny, attorneys-at-law, addressed the committee, and offered to sell the city a lot, just south of the Jewish Synagogue, on Fort street, 180x165, for $65,000. This would be at the rate of $360 per foot.

Several propositions to increase the appropriation by make-shifts were discussed. Mr. Frankenfield repeated that there would be, outside of the $65,000 appropriation, a sum of $12,000, to be derived from the premium on the sale of general improvement bonds, but that he knew of nothing else, except using the surplus of the salary fund.

Mr. Jones objected to using the surplus of the salary or any other fund for any such purpose. He referred to the bad condition of the irrigation system, but was recalled to order.

The Mayor said that the surplus of the salary fund ought not to be diverted from its purpose, because if afterwards that fund became depleted, city officials would have to sell their warrants in order to get money, whilst the fund, to which they were partly entitled, had been applied to other things.

Mr. Graves, on behalf of his principals, said that the city would be granted the privilege of a thirty-days' refusal on the property, but he felt not inclined, without consultation with them, to extend that time. The improvements on the property, consisting of three houses, would not be included in the offer, but if absolutely desired, no difficulty as to throwing them in with the bargain, would be made.

The Mayor gave it as his idea that the present city building and the elephantine hole in the ground beside it, could be sold for $140,000, or the excavated part alone, for $120,000.

The latter proposition appeared the most sensible to the committee, Dr. Sinsabaugh saying that it was the only way out of the trouble.

After a short discussion the Committee on Building, upon motion of Mr. Jones, agreed to recommend to the Council, at its next meeting, to reject all bids opened at the last regular meeting.

In answer to inquiries, Mr. Willard expressed confidence as to the condition of the excavated site. It would never fill with water, owing to its gravelly bottom, and the sewer that runs through the property could be opened to draw off the liquid. There was no danger of the sides caving in, as these were protected by a cement curb. As to the right of the city to sell the lot, that was unquestioned. The city had bought it from the Board of Education, and legal opinions were agreed that the city could dispose of it.

Mr. Stearns then moved that the committee report in favor of the reception of bids, within the next sixty days, for the purchase of the uncovered and excavated part of the City Hall property. In the meanwhile some action ought to be taken to find a desirable site for a City Hall building. The motion was adopted, and the committee proceeded to its routine business.

Cleveland and the South.

The South's enthusiasm over President Cleveland is, like that of most people, dictated by selfish interest. So long as the President confined his veto messages to pension bills for Union soldiers, the Southern Democrats applauded his honest efforts to defeat legislation calculated to bankrupt the nation; but when one of these ever-ready vetoes on the President's table got mixed up in a bill appropriating $80,000 for a public building at Asheville, N. C., there was a howl of indignation from the Democrats there, and Superintendent Atkinson, a leading Bourbon of the town, sent the following telegram to the occupant of the White House: "Having sent you several invitations to come to Buncombe county, believing you to be a wise and just man, and having found out that you are neither, all invitations are withdrawn." Mr. Cleveland should take warning. If he wants the solid South at his back in 1888 he will confine his vetoes to pension bills, and not touch Southern appropriations.

THE HUBBARD TRACT

Is by all odds the cheapest and most desirable tract on the market for the money. You can have fine large lots for only $175 and upwards, and each lot is covered with chicks bearing grape vines, the streets lined with pepper trees, and graded. This property is advancing in value every day, and all we would ask of you is to examine it before you purchase elsewhere. We wish to give you bargains, and you will be convinced of it. You have heard that Los Angeles is growing southwest, and such is most assuredly the case. Look into the matter, and you will find this tract is being surrounded by our city. The soil is perfect; water pure, and the neighborhood as charming as a picture, and from this point you have the finest view of the mountains to be obtained in the county, and most every summer day, commencing about 11 a. m., a refreshing breeze. Just think! you can get lots here for only $4 per front foot. You can have them for $30 cash, and installments of $10 per month, without interest. The tract is a few minutes' walk from the Electric road, on Pico street or the proposed one on Adams street; or the horse car line to be built on Washington street, and you have good schools and churches, etc., close at hand. I am in from 9 to 12 a. m., and will take you out with pleasure at 2 p. m.

CHAS. VICTOR HALL,
10½ S. Spring street.

THE HARDIN TRACT.

This fine piece of land is a delightful spot for a home. You will find it almost next to where lots are selling for $2200 each, which is the best recommendation for these that we could call your attention to. Here you can have a lot for $225 and upwards, with trees, vines, etc. You will have to call early, for the prices are so reasonable that we will not have enough to go around. The streets will be graded and lined with pepper trees, and plank sidewalks added. Do not purchase anywhere a lot before you see these, if you wish a live bargain. They speak for themselves. Always in from 9 to 12 a. m., and will take you out at 2 p. m. with pleasure.

CHAS. VICTOR HALL,
10½ S. Spring street.

SOMETHING NEW.

60 Acres well improved. I will sell by or the entire property at a rate to satisfy any speculator. It has vineyard and trees on it, and close to the city. Could be subdivided into ¼-acre lots, and to be sold on the MOST REASONABLE TERMS. $20,000 will buy this grand property, if you call in a few days. Apply to

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

PASADENA.

OFFICES IN DEMAND—BUILDING NOTES—A TURBULENT CHINAMAN.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

PASADENA, Sept. 10.—W. T. Clapp left for St. Louis this morning to attend the Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. He is the only Sir Knight who goes from Pasadena.

There has been a lively strife among real estate men and others to secure the room soon to be vacated by Postmaster Bristol. Ward Bros. have captured the prize. They lease it of J. C. Fitzhenry, a term of years, for a real estate office, and pay sufficient rental to bring Mr. Fitzhenry's rent (who has a five years' lease of that room and the one adjoining, occupied by his boot and shoe business) down to nil.

The front section of the new brick just finished by Wiley & Co. will be occupied by Decker & Lucas, a new real estate firm. Architect Bidway has leased two rooms over the future quarters of the first National Bank, in the brick block. There are numerous real estate agents who would like to lease offices somewhere, but who have not yet been able to do so, despite the number of new buildings that are going up.

The contract for building Dr. Congar's dwelling has been let to Swift Bros. for $6562, and work has been begun on the job. It will be a residence fit to adorn one of the finest building sites in Pasadena.

Major J. D. Gilchrist goes East this week, accompanied by his wife, whose health requires a change of climate.

Plans for houses are under way in Ridgway's office, as follows: A cottage, near the corner of Colorado and Mentor, for E. L. Farris; an eight-room two-story house on Colorado, for O. A. Gardner; a two-story dwelling, Swiss style, on Moline avenue, for T. P. Lukens; a five-room cottage at Sierra Madre, for W. Huston.

Lindsay Bros. have the contract for building a dwelling-house for Mrs. Howell, on Moline avenue, for $6615.

General regret is expressed that the new bank block, on the corner of Colorado street and Fair Oaks avenue, is not to be three stories high, instead of two. It is, indeed, unfortunate that the finest block in the city should be "squatty" in appearance. Architectural skill cannot save it from this appearance. Well-informed men are confident a third story would rent without trouble.

A Chinaman, named Ah Lock, who has been a sort of parasite inhabitant of Chinatown for some months, became turbulent this afternoon, and smashed up lamps, etc., in the "store" presided over by Sam. Marshal Mundel arrested him, and his trial, before Recorder Gardner, resulted in a sentence of twenty-five days in the county jail.

SAN GABRIEL—ALHAMBRA

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SAN GABRIEL, Sept. 10.—Shorb's and Rose's wineries are running, but no price has been set for grapes. Several of the large vineyardists have arranged to crush their own crops.

The Alhambra Public Library is a feat accomplished, and, owing to the liberal views of the Directors, is open Sundays.

Mr. Patton has closed his San Gabriel lumber yard, and opened another at Monrovia.

C. E. English has returned from Canada, and is staying at his Alhambra ranch.

The negroes of the Mission hold Sunday afternoon prayer meetings at their homes at which the singing of camp meeting melodies is a feature. Rev. Mr. Stuntz, of Alhambra, assists in the services.

The Republicans here almost unanimously endorse the TIMES' position in regard to Walter Moore. If those who propose to scratch him are read out of the party, so much the worse for the party.

Mr. Banbury, of Pasadena, is a candidate for Supervisor against Mr. Foord. "Tom" has got hosts of friends here, who would work for him for any other office, against any other man, but both Democrats and Republicans feel that the best interests of this district demand Mr. Foord's re-election. If Mr. Banbury will choose some other office, we will all "whoop it up" for him.

Mr. John Austin has returned from Long Beach. He leaves next week for Santa Barbara.

W. P. Gardiner and family have returned to their new San Gabriel residence, from Santa Monica.

Mrs. Shub and family go to Long Beach, the first of next week, for a short stay.

O. H. Burke has moved to his residence in New San Gabriel.

San Gabriel's new depot will be occupied next week. It is a very creditable building.

Considerable building is going on at Alhambra. A lumber-yard there would be well patronized.

The sound of the spray pump is heard in the land. Now is the time to exterminate the black and all other scale bugs. Belong came out the other day with a new wash, and since then the bugs have been committing suicide. His new wash smells worse than any former one.

The Sans Souci corps show signs of reanimation. They propose to pay for that piano, no matter if Bartlett has to wait ten years.

POMONA.

THE SLIM DEMOCRACY—GENERAL NOTES.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

POMONA, Sept. 10.—In the report from here to the Herald, of a Democratic meeting held Wednesday evening, you divide the number given as present by three, and the interest shown by the same number, it will sound better.

Does Manager Smith intend the artistic (?) benches placed so invitingly in shady nooks along the avenues, for the use of travellers, tramping on their way to view the country, for resting, or for those whose inclination tends towards a moonlight stroll (?) In all events its a pleasing and appreciative feature. Let more do likewise.

Dr. Chapin, of Seven Palms, has been here the past week. He will undoubtedly build him an elegant summer residence.

Col. Rohrer's residence is progressing finely. The architecture is thoroughly Eastern, therefore we expect something exceptional.

Otto Mueller's new residence opposite the Polomares, will compare favorably with anything from Colton to Los Angeles.

The Y. M. C. A. are looking into the matter of having bath-rooms connected with their association. It will be a very good idea. Judging from the needs, they will be well patronized. TRUM.

Eastern Prices Have Come to Stay at McDonell's Drug Store, 271 N. Main St.

The enormous profits once realized by the drug trade are a thing of the past. We sell our goods at genuine Eastern prices. For instance, we will sell you 1 pound best gum camphor for 25c, regular price 60c; Colgate's Cashmere Boquet soap, 25c per cake, regular price 35c; Hoyt's German Cologne, 15c, regular price 25c; Warner's Kidney and Liver Cure, $1 per bottle, regular price $1.25; and all other goods at Eastern prices. Prescriptions compounded at the new schedule of prices. Remember, McDONELL, the Druggist, Rose Block.

Iron Sulphur Springs.

Thirteen miles' drive east, near the ostrich farm; pleasant health and pleasure resort, located on high mesa land. Hot mineral baths, equal to Hot Springs of Arkansas. Mineral waters remarkable for cure of rheumatism, diseases of stomach, kidneys, skin and nervous system. Good hotel, pleasant grounds. Two trains daily on Santa Ana Railroad; $1.25 round trip. Daily mail and telephone.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES, LOS ANGELES, Friday, Sept. 10.

Potatoes continue scarce, and are higher to-day. Eggs are quoted 1 cent lower. The rest of the Produce Exchange quotations are without change.

Concerning Honey, San Francisco advices say: "This market has not yet responded to the ideas entertained by producers, though liberal shipments are being made by rail and water. Only such lots of choice and fancy comb as are put up in packages designed for special trade will realize anything beyond outside quotations. Only some few sales of particularly bright and choice extracted have brought 4c per pound."

The outlook for Fall Wool seems favorable. Receipts at San Francisco are reported quite free for this season, and the demand has been active during the week.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Government bonds dull and steady.

Stocks again relapsed into extreme dullness with no feature whatever, fluctuations being from ⅛ to ¼ per cent., and the noon figures were about the same as those of the opening. In the afternoon, however, a better feeling prevailed. The principal movement was in Canada Southern, which was bid up by room traders. New York and New England was heavy on reports of selling by Boston parties. Coal stocks were extremely dull excepting Lackawanna, in which there was no movement of importance. The market continues to show no sign of outside interest, and transactions are still confined to purchases and sales by room professionals.

Money on call, loaned at from 5 to 7 per cent., closing at 5 per cent. asked.

Prime paper, 6@8.

Sterling exchange, steady; actual rates, $4 81¾ for 60-day bills; $4 84½ demand.

THE CAUCUSES.

Preliminay Skirmish Against the Bosses.

THIRD WARD COLONIZED WITH TRAMPS.

The Methods of the Bosses and Their Luck—Up Here and Down There —The Tickets.

According to call, the Republican voters met in caucus in their respective wards last night. The fight was in most cases a well-defined one against the bosses. They won in the Third by a brazen colonization, were knocked out in the Fifth, and seem to have fallen decidedly behind in the other wards. The details will be found below.

FIRST WARD.

A Pretty Good Ticket Peaceably Nominated There.

The Republicans of the First Ward met at the Southern Hotel. The meeting was largely attended, and was called to order by Chas. Wickman, Committeeman for the ward. C. B. Woodhead was elected chairman and A. Hechtman secretary. The chairman explained the object of the meeting to be the selection of sixteen delegates to the County Convention. Nominations being in order, the following named persons were placed in nomination:

H. A. Robinson, Martin Wetzell, S. H. Pitney, John McGraw, Allen Smith, P. M. Darcy, F. Lauterio, J. E. Wood, D. W. C. Franklin, W. W. Stockwell, T. A. Garey, F. G. Bandall, C. Wickman, Ed Ragland, J. B. McChesney, N. Knickerbocker, J. M. Obando, T. S. Palmer, Thomas W. Temple, C. B. Woodhead, L. E. Mosher.

On motion the nominations were then closed and it was voted that the delegates be selected by ballot, the sixteen persons having the highest number of votes to be declared elected. The chair appointed as tellers Messrs. Tyler, Whitney, Emerson and Brown, after which the doors were ordered closed and a ballot taken with the following result: Martin Wetzel, 63; John McGraw, 56; P. M. Darcy, 56; W. W. Stockwell, 58; T. A. Garey, 53; F. G. Bandall, 69; C. Wickman, 56; N. Knickerbocker, 50; C. B. Woodhead, 54; L. E. Mosher, 67; T. S. Palmer, 45; Allen Smith, 44; S. H. Pitney, 41; J. B. McChesney, 39; Ed. Ragland, 37; J. M. Obando, 36.

It was voted that a committee be appointed to attend to having tickets printed. After a vote of thanks to the officers, the caucus adjourned.

The First Ward polls will be held at Seakatz's shoe store, 734 San Fernando street.

SECOND WARD.

A Ticket Good in the Main Nominated There.

The caucus meeting of the Second Ward was held in the Courtroom No. 1, of the Superior Court, last night. The room was filled to overflowing. Prof. C. E. Day called the meeting to order, and stated that its purpose was to select 32 delegates to the County Convention to be voted for to-day at the primaries. He hoped the meeting would be harmonious. Major Geo. H. Bonebrake was made chairman, and was cheered as he took his seat and stated that it was his intention to be an impartial chairman. Messrs. De Las Casas and Lester Osborne were next appointed respectively secretary and assistant secretary. The nomination of delegates was then proceeded with. Following were the nominations:

G. H. Bonebrake, J. Manning, C. E. Day, Al Cobler, E. Marsh, Jacob Soarce, E. T. Wright, G. S. De Garmo, J. W. Warren, L. Osborne, John Skinner, John Fisher, Dr. McGowan, Charles Howland, L. Altamirano, D. L. Johnson, McNamara, L. Ledbetter, J. Lockhart, Theo. Summerland, J. N. Gregory, Edwards, John Depuy, Ed. Baker, Lyons, Wade, Meredith, J. De La Casas.

Col. H. G. Otis was placed in nomination and seconded, but upon Major Geo. E Gard stating that he was authorized by Col. Otis to say that he did not wish the nomination, his name was withdrawn.

James H. Lyons withdrew his name immediately after the nominations closed. After a recess of ten minutes, the voting commenced, and was very spirited, 234 tickets being counted. As soon as the voting was closed, the crowd fell off considerably, and dwindled down to about fifty people. For the purpose of expediting business, Mr. De Las Casas proposed to count the straight tickets by bunches of five or ten, and to read off the scratched ones. Andy Furrey objected very much to this course, and said that they wanted all names called one by one and checked, if it took all summer to do it. Mr. DeLas Casas' motion prevailed, and the counting proceeded in the manner advocated by him.

The vote stood as follows, the first 21 being nominated:

L. J. Lockhardt, 226; E. T. Wright, 229; L. Ledbetter, 205; G. H. Bonebrake, 234; M. H. McNamara, 230; J. N. Gregory, 230; R. D. Wade, 224; J. N. Frew, 207; Joe Manning, 213; A. Cobler, 217; F. Marsh, 226; C. E. Day, 225; L. Altimirano, 219; L. Osborne, 221; J. Warren, 232; J. Soarce, 220; J. Grimaud, 223; Theo. Summerland, 216; C. H. Howland, 224; J. Meredith, 221; G. S. De Garmo, 222; J. Skinner, 23; Si. Lyons, 4; —— McGowan, 5; C. Bell, 1; J. Koster, 11; —— Delano, 1; —— Appel, 1; —— Edwards, 5. The first twenty-one in the list were declared nominated.

THE THIRD WARD.

The Caucus Burglarized by Tramps and Bosses.

Some good people—who have a theoretical belief that there are rascals, since they have read of such things, but cannot select any one flesh-and-blood man and make up their minds "this is a rascal"—have had an idea that in warning them of the bosses who are running this city, the TIMES was getting off a "Wolf! Wolf" cry. As if a special providence had interfered in behalf of honest politics, the bosses took pains to put themselves on record in the Third Ward last night, as a standing example to the county at large, of what their methods mean. They showed that in their anxiety to carry their aims and elect their creatures, they would hesitate at nothing which an honest man despises and abhors. With a slate made up in the dark, elected by a gang of tramps and ditch-diggers, they monopolized the entire caucus.

The caucus was held in the Council chamber, which was simply jammed. There were about 200 persons present, of whom the bosses and their gang comprised about 120. H. H. Boyce was on deck and unbashful; and so were his lieutenants. E. A. Hall was there with 50 solid men for the bosses—tramps, graders and whatever could be picked up. When asked whether he thought they had been in the ward three months, Mr. Hall said they had, for most of them had been in jail that long. It is a sober fact that a fair half of the votes cast in the caucus were cast by men who have no vote in the ward. The honest voters who had turned out, saw, upon entering, that they were outnumbered by this crowd two to one; and they therefore made no attempt to do anything.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 by J. W. McKinley, of the county central committee. H. H. Boyce instantly arose and nominated W. C. Furrey for chairman of the caucus. Carried without opposition.

H. J. Fleischman was made secretary.

Mr. Furrey expressed his thanks, and called for nominations for delegates to the County Convention.

There was a long and embarrassing pause, after which H. H. Boyce suggested that the voters nominate as many candidates as they might choose, and that the ticket be balloted for from this number. He also suggested that each voter might make out his ticket at once—a suggestion which was rather rich, in light of the fact that each of his strikers had a written ticket in his pocket.

George Gephard hoped that the latter proposition would not prevail. The convention would be an important one, and only such delegates should be selected as could attend in person. No proxies were wanted.

Mr. Boyce moved that nominations be called for. Carried, about ten voting yes, and John Burns voting no.

Mr. Gephard moved that no delegates should be elected who would not personally attend the Convention. Not put to vote.

The following nominations were then made: Dr. W. G. Cochran, J. Koster, E. A. Hall, E. C. Burlingame, E. F. Spence (declined), W. C. Furrey, E. P. Johnson, S. C. Hubbell, H. H. Boyce, J. W. McKinley, Wm. Osborne, John Bloeser, H. Jevne, Geo. R. Butler, D. W. Field, M. G. McKoon, A. J. Newton, Dr. L. W. French, Ed. Dunham, Ira Phelps, D. G. Stevens, Fred L. Allen, A. L. Bath, Chas. L. Fisher, C. W. Hicks, J. M. Quinn (declined), J. C. Byram, C. H. McNelly, Walter S. Maxwell (declined), S. P. Caswell (declined), Dr. E. C. Manning, Harry T. Payne, Judge W. P. Wade (declined), J. W. Haverstick, A. M. Thornton (declined), W. E. Ferguson, John Burns (declined), F. J. Gillmore (declined), J. H. Book.

J. W. Haverstick, of the Land Office, rose and held aloft a "slate" ticket which he had taken from one of the tramps brought in to crowd the bosses' slate through. There were loud calls to have it read, and he started to read it, but was shouted down by the Boycetes, who seemed a little confused at having their game thus bared. They raised calls that there was a printed ticket in the convention. S. C. Hubbell refused to allow his name to be used, as he was not on the slate. Walter S. Maxwell said there was a printed ticket, headed unpledged delegates. Mr. Hubbell said that the slate was evidently being crowded through.

Here there was much confusion, and it looked for a moment as if the honest minority was going to revolt openly against the burglary. Chairman Furrey refused to allow the bosses' written ticket to be read unless the alleged printed one should also be produced and read.

Mr. Hubbell moved to adjourn. The chairman refused, half a dozen times, to pay any attention to this motion, though repeatedly told that a motion to adjourn was always in order, and took precedence of everything else.

Then Mr. Boyce rushed forward, waving in triumph a printed ticket, and announcing it dramatically.

A motion to read the two tickets was carried, and they were read. The written ticket, a copy of which was in the pocket of every one of the tramps, contained the names of every man who had been nominated by the bosses' crowd. The printed ticket had few names upon it which had been put in nomination at all.

Mayor E. F. Spence moved that no one be allowed to vote who could not answer to the test—having voted for Blaine and Logan, and pledging himself to support the nominees of the party. The motion was not put by the chairman at all.

The "balloting" then began, A. L. Bath and George H. Pike acting as tellers. The anti-boss citizens, the respectable men of unblemished standing in the community, who had come to see that a good ticket was put up, did not vote at all, declining to have any hand in the burglarious proceedings. There were sixty to eighty of these non-participants—gentlemen like Councilman E. W. Jones, Captain A. M. Thornton, Captain E. P. Johnson, George M. Holton, George Gephard, John Burns, J. W. Haverstick, Prof. J. M. Guinn, and others of similar standing. It is believed that not a single ticket was written in the caucus. In fact, there was a large number of votes cast by men who could not have written their own names, much less a ticket. The tramps simply went down in their pockets and drew out the tickets which had been given them by the bosses. The voting went on until Sam Adams, a manly-looking young fellow went to deposit his ballot in the hat, and was challenged to know if he would support all the nominees on the ticket. He burst out in a really eloquent and thoroughly manly protest.

"Mr. Chairman, I am a Republican, and I demand my right to vote here. I will not be gagged. They have no right to demand that I shall support every nominee that may be put up. In the name of the young Republicans of this city, I tell you that when you ask me to support such a man as H. H. Boyce, I will never do it! Never! Never!"

Chairman Furrrey attempted to choke the independent young voter off, and the bossites tried to hiss him down, but he had his say in a ringing, manly voice. A good deal of confusion arose. Mr. Boyce said that Mayor Spence had stated the test, and it should be applied. He was reminded that the caucus had not indorsed any such test. Finally the bosses, seeing that they were making a bad break, and that Mr. Adams's vote would make no difference anyhow, let him put it in.

Chairman Furrey then declared the ballot closed, but his decision was appealed from by Mr. Gephard, and the motion to keep the balloting open for ten minutes longer was carried. Every one, nearly, had already voted, however. Policeman Terence Cooney, a Democrat, had marshaled up the tramps, and they had voted without having any test applied to them.

There were 126 ballots cast in all. Of these, nine-tenths were for the bosses' slate. A sarcastic motion was made by one of the non-voters that the separate votes be not counted at all, but that the number of tickets be counted up, and so many votes be credited to each candidate; and this was actually done with the last eighty tickets.

The following (slate) ticket was chosen, the number of votes for each candidate being given:

W. G. Cochran 121, W. C. Furrey 117, H. H. Boyce 114, J. W. McKinley 118, J. Koster 122, Ed Dunham 118, E. P. Johnson 120 (Mr. Johnson had tried to withdraw his name from the slate), E. A. Hall 118, A. L. Bath 119, H. Jevne 119, H. T. Payne 114, C. H. McNelly 120, E. C. Burlingame 122, E. C. Manning 120, D. W. Field 120, C. W. Hicks 120, M. G. McKoon 120, C. L. Fisher 117, D. G. Stephens 120, Wm. Osborne 119, A. J. Newton 118, Geo. R. Butler 119, John Bloeser 119. This is the bosses' ticket with enough good men on it to make it plausible.

The other votes were for J. C. Byram 6, J. H. Book 6, J. W. Haverstick 2, W. E. Ferguson 3, L. W. French 5, Ira Phelps 4, Fred L. Allen 4, scattering 10.

There was great indignation among the better class of citizens of the ward. They did not say much, but will take it out in working at the primaries to-day. The Third ward voters who do not wear a collar, and who object to having a ticket forced down their throats by tramps and riff-raff, will put a ticket in the field at the primaries to-day. It is made up of men who are entirely unpledged to any candidate, and who propose to go to the convention to do their duty to the county.

FOURTH WARD.

An Orderly Meeting and Anti-Boss Ticket.

The meeting of the Fourth ward caucus was extremely quiet, and the business of the evening quickly dispatched. The rooms in the engine-house proving too small, the assembly adjourned by mutual consent to the Popular restaurant, where it could more comfortably attend the meeting to order, stating the object. A. M. Perry was elected Chairman unanimously, and Mr. Bray Secretary.

Fred C. Smith moved the following ticket to be elected as a whole upon a single vote:

Al. Workman, S. M. Perry, C. C. Cook, J. H. Gish, W. F. Bray, John Lovell, Thos. Strohm, M. G. Aguirre, D. F. Donegan, Jos. Wolfskill, T. Brown, S. H. Gowan, J. Goldsworthy.

A half a dozen objections were immediately shonted, the Chair recognizing Col. J. J. Warner, who moved that the meeting vote its choice of delegates, singly, and, when finished, draw the individual names from a hat, the whole caucus voting yea or nay. This motion was carried, and the caucus proceeded to nominate S. M. Perry, J. H. Browning, John McAllvey, W. F. Bray, John Goldsworthy, James Cuzner, Al. Workman, M. G. Aguirre, John Lovell, I. E. Cohen, R. B. Russell, C. H. Clarke, Col. J.J. Warner, S. H. Gowan, D. F. Dunnigan, J. E Boyce, J. H. Gish, H. D. Barrows, E. Virgin, F. N. Pauly, Jos. Wolfskill, John F. Hogan, and F. Brown.

The nominations were thereupon declared closed. A motion was carried to station sumsons at the door to keep the unwashed out, and allow only Republicans to enter.

A. O. Adams was nominated as teller. Carried.

T. H. Ward moved that the Boyle Heights delegates be voted upon first. Carried.

T. P. Browning moved that J. E. Boyce's name be stricken out, since he lived in another ward. Carried.

The meeting then proceeded to ballot the Boyle Heights delegates, with this result:

S. M. Perry, W. F. Bray, Al. Workman, C. H. Clarke, C. C. Cooke.

Voting for delegates from this side of the river being now in order, F. N. Pauly and J. H. Hogan withdrew their names. The following were respectively elected delegates on a viva voice vote:

John Lovell, S. Sepulveda, Col. J. J. Warner, Jos. Wolfskill, Martin Aguirre, S. H. Gowen, D. F. Donnegan and F. Brown.

The caucus then adjourned with a vote of thanks to the proprietor of the restaurant.

THE FIFTH WARD.

The Anti-Boss Ticket Victorious—The Huttons Left.

The Republican caucus in the Fifth Ward opened tamely last night, and continued so to the end. The meeting was held in the hall of the Morris Vineyard Hose Company, on California, and was largely attended. The best citizens of the Fifth Ward were present, and the interest was commendable.

J. C. Daly, Esq., as a member of the Republican County Committee, called the meeting to order, and suggested the name of P. H. Lemmert as chairman. There was no opposition to this, and Mr. Lemmert took the chair.

George W. Knox nominated Frank W. Cherry as secretary, and on being elected Mr. Cherry took his place.

The Chair then declared the nomination of candidates to be voted for as delegates to-day for the Republican County Convention to be in order. The Fifth ward being entitled to ten delegates in the convention.

A member of the fire hose-company wanted the meeting to adjourn to the larger hall; but the meeting voted to stay where it was.

W. T. Williams moved that all candidates should come forward and pledge themselves to support the whole State and county ticket, and to go to the County Convention unpledged. The vote was carried.

About thirty names were then mentioned as candidates. After the nominations were closed the following persons came forward and took the cast-iron pledge: Cyrus Willard, J. A. McNally, P. H. Lemmert, George W. Knox, J. Frankenfield, C. F. Rutan, J. A. Kelley, William Niles, J. C. Johnson, C. M. Jenkins, H. Hutton, Oscar Baldy, F. G. Teed, B. W. Lee, George Compere, W. P. McIntosh, William E. Dunne, W. T. Somes, George Durfee, M. G. Willard, L. Luitweiler, J. W. Francis, Richard Mercer.

There were two exceptions, namely, I. R. Dunkleberger and Ben E. Ward. Col. Dunkleberger said he would not take an oath that he would support the State ticket [applause]; still, he might change his mind between this and November.

Ben E. Ward said he had been a Republican before he could vote, and had been ever since he could vote, but he always reserves the right to vote as his judgment dictates. [Applause.] If the caucus should send him to the County Convention on those terms, he would pledge himself to support the ticket he might help to make, but he would not pledge himself to support the whole State ticket. [Great applause.]

When C. F. Rutan came forward to take his pledge, Horace Bell asked him bluntly if he would vote for Walter Moore, to which Rutan replied, "None of your business."

After the candidates had all taken pledges, several motions were made, in reference to the manner of procedure in taking a ballot, but the chair put none of them.

W. T. Williams moved that a majority vote decide. Not seconded.

I. R. Dunkleberger moved that the names having the lowest number of votes cast be dropped. Not seconded.

J. C. Daly moved that two tellers and an assistant secretary be elected, and that the names of the voters be enrolled. Carried.

The chair appointed F. C. Woodbury as assistant secretary, and J. C. Daly and W. A. Barker as tellers.

Mr. Williams moved a recess of thirty minutes. Carried.

After several more motions to the same point, the meeting took a recess to allow those present to vote.

After the recess, Mr. Williams moved that the ten names having the highest number of votes be declared elected.

H. A. Barclay moved to amend this by adding "if they have a majority."

Several other motions and amendments were made, until the chair became quite confused. Some one came to the relief of the chair by moving to lay the whole thing on the table. The noes were much the loudest, but the chair failed to declare the result, saw there was another batch of resolutions. Finally, Dr. Sinsabaugh cut the Gordian knot by suggesting that the tellers proceed with their business, which they did. While the counting was in progress, Dr. Sinsabaugh moved to take the ten highest voted.

Col. Dunkleberger asked for a suspension of business till the count of the ballot is finished.

C. F. Rutan thought the motion unfair, notwithstanding which, the question was put and carried.

Horace Bell objected, and wanted to argue the question, but the meeting considered the question settled, and Bell quit the meeting.

The result was as follows: Oscar Baldy, 64; P. H. Lemmert, 63; George W. Knox, 62; J. A. Kelley, 57; B. W. Lee, 56; J. Frankenfield, 56; C. F. Rutan, 56; F. G. Teed, 55; W. E. Dunn, 53; J. C. McNally, 52; W. P. McIntosh, 51; Ben E. Ward, 49; I. R. Dunkleberger, 48; W. T. Somes, 51; H. Hutton, 34; C. M. Jenkins, 25; M. G. Willard, 27; C. Willard, 42; J. C. Johnson, 32; William Niles, 14; George Compere, 36; L. Luitweiler, 15; J. W. Francis, 13; Richard Mercer, 18; A. W. Francisco, 1; A. S. Robbins, 6; A. H. Denker, 13; Dr. Sinsabaugh, 3; George Durfee, 9; — Happ, 7; Horace Bell, 1; — Wolf. 1; Butler, 1; scattering, 7.

The meeting was then called to order, and on motion of Col. Dunkleberger, Messrs. Lemmert, Knox, Frankenfield, Rutan, Kelley, Baldy, Lee, McNally, Teed and Dunn were unanimously declared the nominees of the caucus, to be voted for to-day.

AT PASADENA.

A Reliable Anti-Rascality Ticket Nominated There.

At the Republicad caucus in Pasadena, last night, the following gentlemen were nominated by ballot, to be voted for as delegates at the primaries to-day: T. P. Lukens, S. Washburn, J. W. Wood, Col. J. Banbury, J. E. Clarke, W. O. Swan, Jr.

Pasadena was allotted only five delegates by the Executive Committee, but, as the Republican vote of the place showed it entitled to six, according to the apportionment, six were chosen.

Only $290, worth $500 to $800, and twenty-eight months to pay; no interest. Only the Electric Railway Homestead Association can offer such bargains.

The Effect

Of the Pico Electric Railway on value of property near it, is truly wonderful. Yesterday evening a gentleman was offered a piece of property for $750, and this morning it was sold for $1500. The railway will have the same effect in the Electric Railway Homestead lots.

Coronado Beach is situated directly across the bay of San Diego, one mile from the city. It contains 4(0) acres of rich, sandy loam, from 20 to 70 feet above tide water, which is subdivided and planted in an artistic manner into villa and other lots.

The ocean beach is one of the finest in the world, stretching far away into Old Mexico. For bathing and driving it is unsurpassed. The surf is medium, with no undertow.

The climate is almost perfection, averaging about 68 to 70 degrees throughout the entire year. Frost or hot weather both unknown. The rarest tropical plants grow out of doors.

The view of ocean, bay and mountain scenery is magnificent, and in variety and beauty cannot be excelled.

The Coronado Beach Company have organized with a capital of $1,000,000, and every improvement necessary to build up the finest sea-side resort in America is being made.

The sale of lots will be opened by a public auction on SATURDAY, NOV. 13, 1886, at 10 A. M. Sale unreserved to the highest bidder. Terms and conditions very favorable—made known at the time of sale.
